SUBJECT: DUVALKO, John
41 Addison Rd, Pennington, South Australia

DATE : 26 Aug 1963

1. According to Dr B of Louvain, Belgium, Subject visited him in Aug 1963 introducing himself as a Ukrainian from Carpatho-Ukraine, now Australian citizen and resident, painter-decorator and "deeply interested in Ukrainian emigree life". He also told Dr B that he was travelling by now for almost two years and visited in the meantime the USA, Canada, Switzerland, Great Britain, France, Sweden, Norway, Holland and Germany. While in France Subject paid also a visit to Dr M and mentioned to him the village in which M's mother was teaching at one time.
2. To Dr B, Subject looked rather suspicious. He told Dr B that he was soon leaving for Australia but as Dr B learned at the time being he was again in Germany, (in Munich).
